

Agency to provide nursing training

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

CHANDIGARH, JUNE 1

The Haryana Overseas Placement Assistance Society has tied up with an agency to help nurses get jobs in the USA.

Haryana finance, labour and employment minister Birender Singh said the society has tied up with Modi Healthcare Placement, New Delhi, for imparting training in nursing and spoken English to aspirants and then helping them get jobs in America.

He said the society would provide the agency infrastructure to set up a centre. Those interested in joining professions other than nursing can also get training in the centre for general English and International English Language Testing System (IELTS), he said.
